Corcoran Jennison's Elizabeth More Named
"Outstanding National Affordable Housing Professional"
by New England Affordable Housing Management Association

Boston, MA: Elizabeth More of Corcoran Jennison Management Company has been named "Outstanding National Affordable Housing Professional" by the New England Affordable Housing Management Association (NEAHMA).

Ms. More is Director of Administration at Corcoran Jennison Management Company in the Boston, MA office. She is responsible for training and education of CJ staff, and supervises rent relations for the company's subsidized properties. Ms. More visits sites regularly to track compliance and assure standards are being adhered to for 22,000 units. Ms. More also handles all human resources concerns, fair housing related issues, and all regulatory Agency responses. Ms. More is an active member of NEAHMA serving on the Board of Directors.

"Liz is very deserving of this award, and we're thrilled NEAHMA has recognized her," said Scott Ployer, Director of Operations at Corcoran Jennison Management Company. "She's energetic, she's concerned about employees and residents, and she's a stickler for details. We are so fortunate to have her at CJ."

Corcoran Jennison Management Company was formed in 1971, and manages over 24,000 properties. CJ Management has earned a national reputation for building and managing quality market rate mixed-income and affordable housing, and has been named "Property Management Company of the Year" by the National Association of Homebuilders.
